

An aerial photograph of a lush, green valley. In the foreground, a dense forest of green trees covers the lower slopes. A river or stream flows through the valley, its banks lined with vibrant green grass. In the background, rolling hills and mountains are covered in similar vegetation, extending towards a horizon under a cloudy sky. The overall scene is a vibrant, natural landscape.

Reunión la isla del fuego

Caminar sobre las brasas, temblar ante un volcán, tirarse por un cañón, bucear en la barrera de coral y volar sobre los cráteres, hacen inolvidable el descubrimiento de esta isla misteriosa, territorio europeo en el índico.
